

SSN Achievement Award in Nephrology

The annual SSN Achievement Award is given in recognition of outstanding performance and sterling leadership in the field of Nephrology in Singapore. It may be conferred on an individual who has made significant contributions to the profession and the community. The Award will be presented during the Annual Scientific Meeting of the Society.

Nominations for the Award

Nominations for this award will be invited from members of the Singapore Society of Nephrology.

Eligibility for the Award

All ordinary and associate members of the Singapore Society of Nephrology who are in good standing will be eligible for nomination.

Previous winners are not eligible for nomination.

Nominees for the award should be:

- doctors or allied health personnel (ie. Nurses, pharmacists, dieticians, renal/transplant coordinators, educators etc.) working in the field of nephrology
- role models upholding personal and professional integrity
- those who advanced the art and practice of nephrology in Singapore
- committed and dedicated to promoting the welfare and care of kidney patients
- actively involved in educating the community
- committed to nurturing and inspiring young doctors and allied health personnel

A summary CV of the nominee to provide documentary support for the nomination (not to exceed 2 pages) is required.

Selection for the Award

The Selection Committee appointed by the Society's Executive Committee will make the selection. There will only be one award presented each year. The decision of the Committee is final and the committee reserves the right to withhold the award should there be no suitable awardee.

Terms of the Award

The recipient of this award will be presented with a gold medallion.
